Mayor Scores Action of Magistrate Simms in Taking Rec-

Mayor Mitchel began an investigation to-day of the charge that City Magistrate Charles E. Simms ordered the finger-printing of three boys because they had been found guilty of playing ball Sunday afternoon on One Hundred and Fifty-first Street.

Mayor Mitchel began an investigation of their finger-prints of their finger-prints I would like to know how and why it was done."

The boys are Walter Sharp, seventhan the most expensive soap or anythen, of No. 523 West One Hundred and Avenue.

ed before. He was told that all three and suffering from internal injuries. He was taken to the Eastern District Hoshad excellent reputations.

"Do you believe that the arrest of a boy for playing baseball on the street in violation of a city ordinance justifies a magistrate to order his finger prints taken?" Mayor Mitchel was sented doubt of the injured man's recovery.

Wassing got into an altercation with some of the got man who hit him and would be shown one man who hit him and would "attend to his case" when he got well. Dr. Rabiner of the hospital said there was sented doubt of the injured man's recovery. "Do you believe that the arrest of "I should say not," he replied. "This action of finger-printing seems to carry with it the sense of putting one in the criminal class. Of course no one regards playing ball as a real crime, despite the fact that it is a violation of an ordinance, it is not a real crime, morally or legally. Boys

Bought in London by Our Commissioner - Nearly

300 Fine Antique Oriental Rugs

Last to Come from the Orient

Since the war, London is more than ever the rug market of the world.

Fine rugs are no longer coming out of the East; can't get out of the ports; and New York's supply practically has been exhausted.

London only has a reserve-and Britishers are not buying rugs when personal taxes are so high.

So we went to London recently to see what we could find.

The Trip Was Fruitful

We went into every corner of the market. We procured many good bales. The particular lot which we now present came from a Russian importer there-bought for cash on the spot because he was closing up his affairs.

"Finest in 18 Years"

"They are the finest rugs, taken as a whole, that I have seen come into America in 18 years," says our expert.

309 rugs in all; more than 90 per cent. of them genuine antiques-

- undoctored
- -unwashed
- -of fine wool -closely woven

Beautiful antique Daghestans, Shirvans, Cabistans, Shiraz, Royal Bokharas, Bakus and Khorassans,

The old-time weaves, unique and beautiful patterns, rich soft toneddown colors.

Totally unlike the modern sleazy "commercial" rugs that came into the country so fast just before the war broke.
